

Mount Edgecombe Plantation

Mount Edgecombe Plantation offers a serene vacation experience, nestled above the Caribbean Sea, on the spice and cocoa rich island of Grenada

Mount Edgecombe Plantation, with a history going back at least as far as 1763, is a working plantation originally producing sugar cane and rum, but later switching to grow spice, cocoa and coffee. The stunning, sheltered and elevated location on the West Coast of Grenada, enjoys cool sea breezes, amazing sunsets and panoramic views of the shimmering turquoise Caribbean Sea.

Facilities:

- 28 acres of colorful tropical flora, with the sound of birds and tree frogs.
- Traditional accommodation sleeping 16.
- A self-contained Plantation House with wrap around covered living/dining veranda and 180° views of the sea and estate.
- Nutmeg rooms in original spice storage house with cocoa drying racks below.
- Two stunning infinity pools and sun deck.
- Great Room with the ‘Little Bamboo Bar’ for the perfect dining experience watching yachts sailing to and from the Grenadines.
- WiFi, TV, cable and air-conditioning.
- A live-in team providing housekeeping and freshly picked fruit for breakfast.

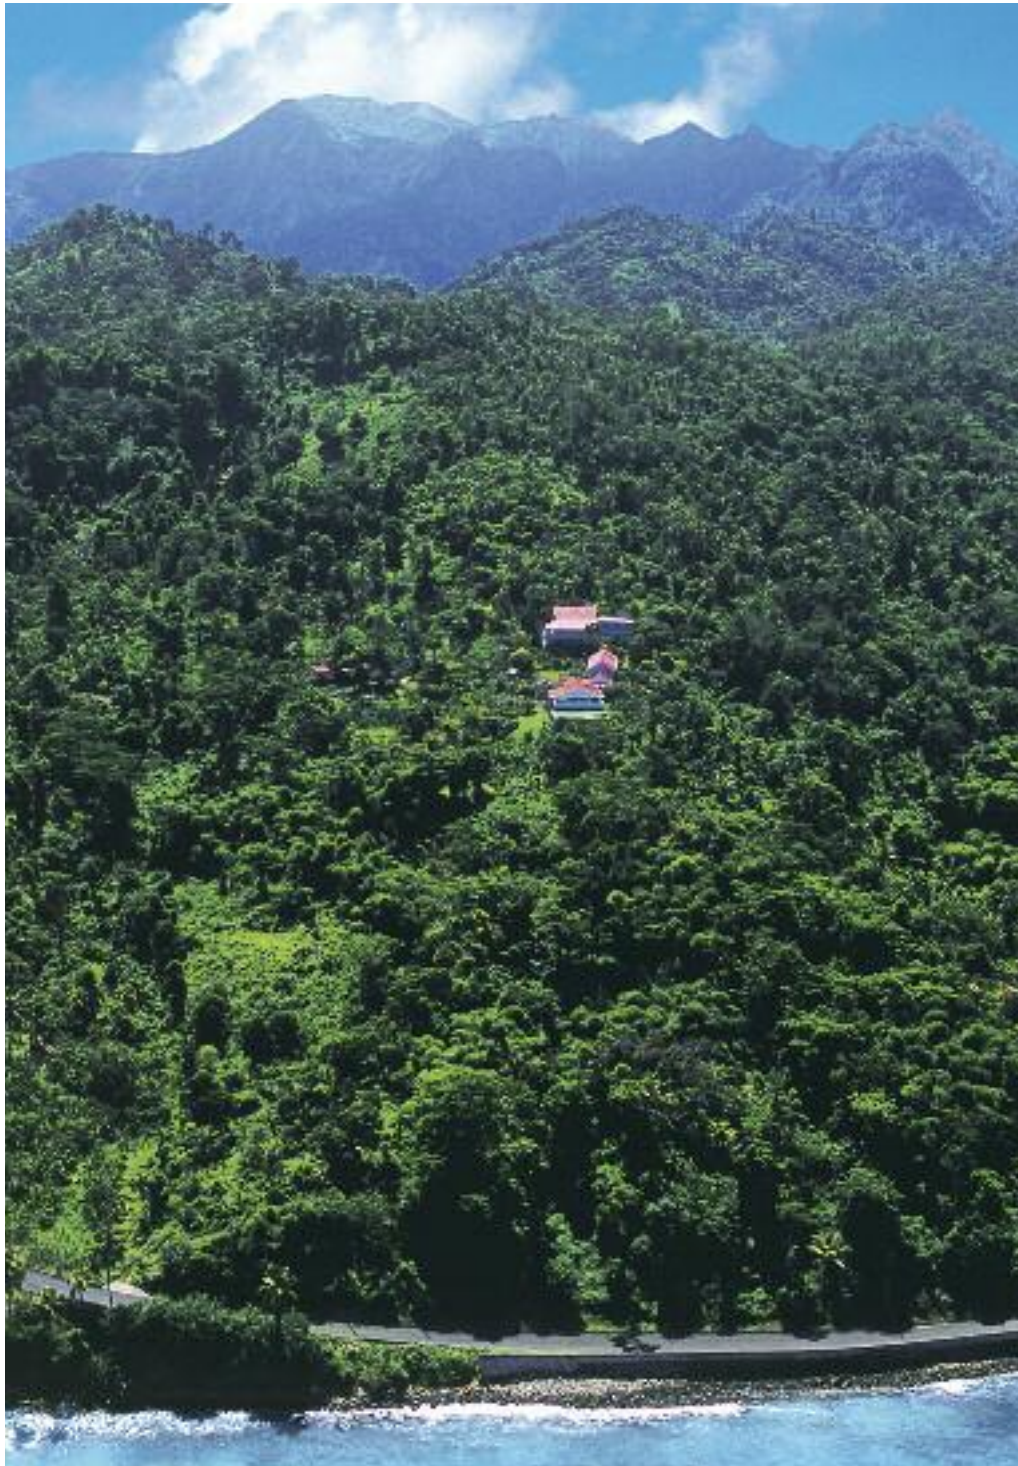

Exclusive use of the estate provides the dream location for an intimate wedding, family reunion, and private event of special interest groups.

Places to visit and activities close by include:

- Gorgeous, soft-sand beaches.
- Picturesque harbour city of St George’s.
- Grand Étang National Park with miles of hiking trails in the lush tropical rainforest.
- Seven Sisters and Concord Waterfalls.
- Natural wildlife sanctuaries.
- Turtle and whale watching (Nov-May).
- Fishing, sailing, snorkeling and scuba.
- Nutmeg factories and rum distilleries.
- Farmer cooperative chocolate factory using cocoa harvested on the estate.

We can assist with airport transfers, car hire, private excursions and nearby island trips.
